

FARMINGTON VALLEY ARTS CENTER

As an artist who has exhibited, taught or displayed your art work at the Farmington Valley Arts Center, we would like to extend this invitation to help support the Arts Center's programs.

Call for Artist's Works To Benefit the Farmington Valley Arts Center

FVAC is looking for artist designed and created "seats" or pieces of art incorporating and/or interpreting a "seat" theme to form the cornerstone of the live auction of its 4th Annual Sweetheart Auction.

This year's auction theme is "Take a Seat" and will take place as follows:

Date: Saturday, February 7, 2009
Where: Avon Old Farms Hotel in Avon, CT
When: 6:30 to 10 pm

Artists donating works may be recognized in promotional materials and advertising for the auction, including photographs of their work, in addition to being listed in the auction catalog and Connections, FVAC news-magazine. Artwork will also be previewed on FVAC's website and arrangements are being made for public display prior to the auction.

Artists interested in creating and donating a piece should complete the attached proposal form. Commitment proposal forms for donated work should be submitted by Monday, September 22, 2008. Completed works must be received by Wednesday, October 29, 2008.

The Farmington Valley Arts Center is a multi-faceted nonprofit 501 c 3 arts organization that serves the communities of Central Connecticut and beyond. We are one of a few organizations in the country that makes art accessible along the entire "art continuum" – from hands-on arts education for all ages and skill levels, to providing studios for emerging and professional artists, to making art easily available for purchase. We seek to provide quality arts education, public programs and outreach as a means of connecting creativity to daily life.

Our art classes, artist studios, exhibitions, concerts, special programs, galleries, and outreach all serve to connect people to the arts, for the pure joy and satisfaction that art brings.
